Industrial Action

A series of answers to common questions relating to the industrial action and how it may affect you have been developed. These FAQs will be added to and updated as necessary. <http://www.ed.ac.uk/student-administration/heaaction/faqs>

If you have accepted an unconditional offer then details of that Programme of Study will appear 6 weeks before your start date.

Welcome to the University of Edinburgh Applicant Hub. Here we will tell you about the progress of your application, ask for any information which we may require from you and publish decisions which we make on your application. Please check back regularly.

You can find the University's admissions terms and conditions at: www.ed.ac.uk/staff-students/students/academic-life/studies/contract.

If you are made an offer of a place of study at the University and you decide to accept it, you will also be accepting our admissions terms and conditions, as well as the other university regulations that form part of the student contract. Please therefore ensure that you take the time to read them carefully.

If you have any questions about the details displayed, please contact your admissions team: their details can be found here. For help using the Applicant Hub, visit the Help links across the application and in the footer of every page.
